

Millions Missing event in Geneva: how can I take part?

Action for M.E. is collaborating with M.E. organisations in Europe and beyond to host a Millions Missing event in Geneva on Saturday 12 May 2018, supporting #MEAction's global day of action calling for health equality. We need your support and there are lots of ways to get involved!

Show your support on our Millions Missing Geneva event page

Show support for this event and encourage others to take part, by registering on the Millions Missing website – this could mean that you are attending in person, sending us shoes for display, or intending to support the event on social media.

Spread the word among your family and friends

Share the link to our Millions Missing event (www.actionforme.org.uk/millionsmissing2018) with your family and friends, and to other people with M.E., such as your local M.E. support group. Let them know that you'll be taking part in this event and ask if they can do the same.

Send us your shoes

At our event, we will display empty pairs of shoes to represent the lives not lived as a result of M.E. whether you live with the condition yourself or care for someone who does.

Please send your shoes to Action for M.E., 42 Temple Street Keynsham, Bristol BS31 1EH by Thursday 3 May (please note we aren't able to return any shoes we receive), and be sure to include:

- your name (first name or full name) and age
- your location (town or city is fine – we don't need your full address)
- the thing you miss most as a result of M.E.'s impact on your life.

If you aren't able to get to the post office, or don't have any suitable shoes, but would still like to participate, we are exploring other ways to display stories on the day. Please get in touch if you are interested in this.

Support our event online

If you are active on social media, you can help us highlight the event on from 11am UK time on Saturday 12 May by:
